 The maximum number of characters for a plaintext is 15. The minimum number of characters for a coded barcode is 3 and the maximum number is 15.

 When selecting the illustration type C, the plain text is coded as barcode by default. A deviating barcode text can be coded optionally due to specifications given by a material management system for example.

 Green, light blue, orange, dark blue and black plates are only available in illustration type A and D.

 The text is always black! On black, dark blue, green and red signs, plain text is difficult or impossible to read.
